

What's on

SOCIETY OF GENEALOGISTS

The National Library & Education Centre for Family History

Do you know who you are? Open Day with Library Tours & Beginners Lectures

Saturday 27 March 2010, 11.00 – 4pm

FREE - but must be pre-booked

Do you know who you are? Open Day with Library Tours & Beginners Lectures

Saturday 27 March 2010, 11.00 – 4pm

Lectures, tours and advice are free, but as space in the lecture room and library is limited, booking is essential. Please call SoG Events direct on: 020 7553 3290 to book a place or email: events@sog.org.uk.

Tours of the Library, each lasting approximately 1.5 hours will take place at 11am, 12pm, 2pm, and 3pm.

The regular £10.00 joining fee will be waived if you decide to join the society this day.

Programme

- 11.30am Getting the Most from the Census
John Hanson
- 12.45pm Starting your Family History
Else Churchill
- 2.00pm Getting the Most from the Census
John Hanson
- 3.15pm Treasures of the SoG
Sue Gibbons

Lectures will last approximately 50-60 minutes. Although these must be pre-booked, no tickets will be issued.

About the Society

The Society has the largest family history library in the UK. It holds copies of family history sources, finding aids, indexes and unique research materials. The Library also has free Internet access to some major genealogical websites. The Society is also proud to boast the largest collection of copies of parish registers in the UK.

CONTACT US

Society of Genealogists,
14 Charterhouse Buildings,
Goswell Road, London
EC1M 7BA
Phone: 020 7251 8799
Fax: 020 7250 1800
Website: www.sog.org.uk

