CONTENTS

Genealogists' Magazine

- 287 Emigrant Passenger Lists to the USA - Peter Coldham
An explanation of the history of passenger lists to the USA, a list of the major ones and a comparison of the websites where many of them can now be found.
- 293 Victorian Servants' Lives & Mothers' Petitions for the London Foundling Hospital - Pamela Horn. Maid servants found it absolutely impossible to keep their babies and, if they had no willing to relatives to take them, were forced to put them into institutions. Many of the petitions to the London Foundling Hospital give fascinating details on the parents' circumstances.
- 299 A Cambridge Woman of the Town in the Late 18th Century:
The Career of Elizabeth Faddock - Michael J Burchall, BA (Hons), FSG
Cambridge Quarter Session Order Books help us trace the life of women who had to earn their living how they could.
- 303 New Developments in Medieval Genealogy - M. L. Bierbrier
New light on the Montefeltro family, attempts to link medieval families back to classical times and the family of the Earls of Mercia (including Lady Godiva).
