CONTENTS

Genealogists' Magazine

- 247 The Smith of Eardiston Baronetcy - Gervase Belfield.
How a title was restored to its rightful owners.
- 251 The Royal College of Surgeons
A straightforward survey of their records.
- 253 'Who Did He Think He Was?' Sergeant John McGowan & the 'Batta Mutiny' of 1766 - Peter Bailey. How Sergeant John Gowan of the East India Company sergeant suddenly got a commission and rose to be a Colonel.
- 257 Open Access Microfilms in the Asia, Pacific & Africa Collections. Reading Room of the British Library - Emma Jolly. Another excellent analysis of records by this public spirited young genealogist.
- 261 Student Registers at the Royal Veterinary College London 1794-1945 - Frances Houston.
Good records of the students with many examples of background material.
- 264 Centenary Celebrations and Appeal - June Perrin.
- 265 Implexion or pedigree collapse? - Vincent Tickner. Out of genealogy and into macro-demographics. How many ancestors are we likely to have in distant generations?
- 270 Digitisation Project: Outer Space. The Library and Digitisation. Frank Hardy F.S.G. Indexes are quick to use but they aren't quick to produce. Hats off to Frank and all the wonderful inputters at the typeface.
